Bienvenue

Welcome!

Dear reader,

a very warm welcome in the Mayen-Koblenz administrative district! Everybody knows it is not easy to make a new start. This flyer is our contribution, to provide you with a plan that will make it easier to find your way around during your first few weeks in the Mayen-Koblenz administrative district.

Here you will find information relating to the correct contact partners for important aspects of daily life. Where can I learn German? Who will help me? Who can give me advice? Where can I obtain counseling and assistance. This guide is designed to help you obtain specific answers to your questions. Please make use of our various offers. And if you require information that you cannot find here, we are very happy to answer your questions. You can also find additional information in our "Welcome Atlas" on our homepage, at www.kvmyk.de. Or simply scan the QR code on the front page of this brochure.

The Mayen-Koblenz administrative district is open to the world. We hope that all those who have a background of migration and are living here will feel well and at home in our administrative district – no matter what your cultural background is. I would like to wish you a good start in Mayen-Koblenz.

Sincerely yours

Dr. Alexander Saftig
District Administrator,
Mayen-Koblenz administrative district
